The court examined the applicant John W. Bump & upon the interrogatories prepared by the War Department to the fact. He answered that he was born in New Kent County Virginia in the month of May 1765 and I had near by in my possession a record of his age. To the third he answered that he resided in Bedford County Virginia when he entered the service and had resided since the War as stated in his declaration and now resides in Hart County Kentucky. To the fourth he stated that he was called in to the service & served as stated in his declaration. He further stated that he did not recollect the names of any of the officers with whom he served except those stated in his declaration.
That he never received any discharge from the service
and that Richard Blunson, Jeremiah Dawson & Nathaniel

Wm. Gordon Examining Clerk.

State of Kentucky, Hart County, Ky.

On this 16th day of May 1833 personally appeared before me a justice of the peace for Hart County Kentucky Joshua Crump of said county, who being by me duly sworn according to law, deposed and said, that by reason of old age and the consequent loss of memory, he cannot swear positively to the precise length of time he served as a soldier of the American Revolution, but according to the best of his recollection, he served not less than the periods mentioned below and in the following grades
For two months I served in the first tour mentioned in my declaration as a private soldier, under Captain Callaway - For three months I served in the second tour guarding the magazine of this county as a private soldier as mentioned in my original declaration - For two months I served in the third and last expedition or tour mentioned in my declaration as a private soldier also -

I served also, some other tours against the Tories for which service, however I make no claim - but for the three tours above stated amounting in all to not less than seven months, I claim a pension from the Government. Sworn to and subscribed the day and date above named before me a justice of the peace for said county of Hart of state aforesaid -

Joshua Crump

Bury J. McLean - J.P.

On this 16th day of May 1833 Col. Alexander Gardner and George J. Wood of said county personally before me and being duly sworn according to law, stated that they are now & have been for many years past well acquainted with Joshua Crump Esq., who has sworn to & signed the above statements, & who resides in Hart County Kentucky, and that they believed him to be sixty eight years of age or thereabouts and that from the modesty of Squire Crump they have not heard much talk of his having been a soldier of the Revolution, yet from his statements on oaths or otherwise of the fact, we have no doubts he did serve

Dear Sir:

Reference is made to your letter in which you request the record of Joshua Grump, of Virginia, born about 1764, pensioned in Hart County, Kentucky, and died after 1840, also, the record of William Grump, both soldiers of the Revolutionary War.

There is no claim for pension or bounty land on file based upon service in the Revolution of the William Grump described by you. Such claims are the source of Revolutionary War data furnished by this office.

You are furnished herein the record of the only soldier named Joshua Grump found in the Revolutionary War records of this office, the data of which were obtained from the papers on file in pension claim, S. 30352, based upon his service in the Revolution.

Joshua Grump was born in May, 1765, in New Kent County, Virginia; the names of his parents are not shown.

While residing in Bedford County, Virginia, he volunteered in 1780 and served two months as private in Captain John Calloway's Virginia company. He enlisted in 1781, served as private in Captain Butler's Virginia company, engaged in guarding the magazine which was located first at New London, Campbell County, Virginia, then moved to Botetourt County, same state, length of tour three months. He enlisted in 1782 as a substitute for one John P. Grump (relationship not stated) and served six or eight weeks as private in Captain Richardson's Virginia company.

The soldier resided in the State of Virginia until 1785 when he moved to Kentucky.

Joshua Grump was allowed pension on his application executed September 11, 1832, while a resident of Hart County, Kentucky. He was still living there in 1833.

No reference was made in the claim to wife or children.

In order to obtain date of last payment of pension, the name of the person paid and possibly the date of death of Joshua Crump, you should write to the Comptroller General, General Accounting Office, Records Division, this city, and cite the following:
